

Sea Kayaking: The Magic Triangle Day by day description

Day 1 LLACHON / KARINA (CHUCUITO)

Leaving early either from Puno or Juliaca we enter the road to Llachon at Illpa, passing the villages of Huata and Coata. Here we enter the peninsula of Capa Chica, arriving at the main village of the same name. The road follows the lake shore at this point and we pass two communities until we reach the village of Llachon, our embarkation point. After briefing we receive the appropriate safety equipment and embark on our three to four hour sea-kayaking adventure. We head towards the peninsula of Chucuito, across open water until reaching the beach at Karina, a community of farmers located on the edge of a long sandy beach with beautiful calcareous rock formations and an interesting overhang. We can hike around the area in the afternoon and set up camp on the coast-line.

Day 2 KARINA / TAQUILE

Today we cross over to Taquile Island, disembarking on its southern trip and hiking along the island to the main square. Visit the village and in the afternoon settle into our rural lodge for dinner and overnight. Beautiful views of the surrounding lake-shore including the Cordillera Real on the Bolivian side of the lake

Day 3 TAQUILE/ LLACHON

We proceed to explore the coastline of the island and then head across the open water again returning to our starting point at Llachon. Hopefully with the prevailing wind behind us we will complete this leg of the journey faster. On arrival, lunch at Llachon before returning to the mainland from the peninsula (transportation not included .This can be either by vehicle or by boat which costs about US$ 85)

SERVICES INCLUDED: Sea-kayaks, paddles, life jackets and safety equipment, a local guide, boat support, all meals from lunch on day one to lunch on day three, including the overnights at rural lodges.

SERVICES NOT INCLUDED: transportation to Llachon and back, gloves, sun screen, hats, alcoholic beverages, personal clothing, extras, and insurance, camera gear, toiletries.
