Peru Surfari

This trip through central & northern Peruvian coast will take you from desert sunny roads to the first place where a man surfed a wave and also to lonely surf points with unreal waves!

The night before departure, a briefing will be given to explain all the important matters of this Surfing tour.

Day 1 Lima/Huanchaco

Morning departure to Huanchaco on our way we may stop in a couple of surfing spots (Centinela, Bermejitos or Playa Grande). We will arrive to Huanchaco by night. Huanchaco is known by history, as the first place where humans used to surf waves in their ancestral Caballitos de Totorá (boats similar in shape to surfboards but made from Totorá cane). This traditional way of fishing is still conserved by locals that astonish tourists from all parts of the world.

Day 2 Chicama

Day 3 Pacasmayo

Full morning surfing this world class left. In the afternoon we will pack our stuff and continue our journey north to our next stop, Pacasmayo, classical and very long wave, in good days more than 1 Km! This left wave is similar to Chicama in shape but always bigger. Lunch and rest for the late session. Overnight.

Day 4 Mancora

Full morning surfing Pacasmayo. After Lunch our SURFARI continues up north to Mancora, this area is sunny year round, and 1164km away from Lima, with warm water, there's tourists here from all around the globe and the place will keep you busy in and out of the water.

Day 5 Mancora/Pacasmayo

At dawn we must check the waves to decide where to go surfing, we have several options, depending on swell conditions. Full day of surfing. In the afternoon we must return back to Pacasmayo to surf this perfect wave once again.

Day 6 Pacasmayo/ Lima

This morning we will have our last surfing session of this unforgettable trip. After lunch we will return to Lima, arriving late at night.
